"Poems of Love" op.48 Robert Schumann - lyrics by Heinrich Heine - arr. by Kazuhiko

- |                                                       |                                     |
|-------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|
| 1 In the wonderfully beautiful month of May           | 9 There is a fluting and fiddling   |
| 2 From my tears sprout forth                          | 10 I hear the dear song sounding    |
| 3 The rose, the lily, the dove, the sun               | 11 A young man loved a girl         |
| 4 When I gaze into your eyes                          | 12 On a shining summer morning      |
| 5 I want to delve my soul                             | 13 I wept in my dream               |
| 6 In the Rhine, in the fair stream                    | 14 Nightly I see you in my dreaming |
| 7 I bear no grudge, even when my heart isbreaking | 15 From old fairy tales beckons     |
| 8 And if the blooms - the small ones - knew           | 16 The old, angry songs             |
